

A modern, chrome-finished shower system. It features a large, square rain showerhead mounted on a curved arm. Below it is a handheld showerhead on a sliding bar. The system is connected to a thermostatic mixer tap with a diverter, which is mounted on the wall. The tap has a single-lever handle and a diverter button. A flexible hose connects the handheld showerhead to the tap. The entire system is made of polished chrome.

